

PRIVACY NOTICE

Purpose of this notice

1. This notice describes how we collect and use personal data about you, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the Data Protection Act 2018 and any other national implementing laws, regulations and secondary legislation, as amended or updated from time to time, in the UK ('Data Protection Legislation').
2. We believe it is very important to respect the privacy of individuals, and to make only safe and ethical use of the information that is provided.
3. Please read the following carefully to understand our practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

About us

4. Denny Sullivan & Associates LLP ("Denny Sullivan Chartered Accountants", "we", "us", "our" and "ours") is an accountancy and tax advisory firm and statutory auditor. We are registered in England and Wales as a limited liability partnership under number: OC313513 and our registered office is at 155 Greenvale Road, Eltham Park, London SE9 1PG.
5. For the purpose of the Data Protection Legislation and this notice, we are the 'data controller'. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal data about you. We are required under the Data Protection Legislation to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice.
6. We have appointed a member responsible for data protection. Our data protection member is our Data Protection Point of Contact and is responsible for assisting with enquiries in relation to this privacy notice or our treatment of your personal data. Should you wish to contact our Data Protection Point of Contact you can do so using the contact details noted at paragraph 40 (Contact Us), below.

How we may collect your personal data

7. We obtain personal data about you, for example, when:
 - a) You request us to provide services or quote to provide services or you request a proposal from us in respect of the services we provide;
 - b) Our clients engage us to provide our services and also during the provision of those services; if we are contacted by you by email, telephone or post; or from third parties and/or publicly available resources (for example, from your employer or from Companies House).

The kind of information we hold about you

8. The information we hold about you may include the following:
 - a) your personal details (such as your name and/or address);
 - b) details of contact we have had with you in relation to the provision, or the proposed provision, of our services;

- c) if you are a client then we may hold contact details, bank details, pension details, National Insurance number, Unique Tax Reference, date of birth, employment details such as remuneration, investment details;
- d) details of any services you have received from us;
- e) our correspondence and communications with you;
- f) information about any complaints and enquiries you make to us;
- g) information from research and marketing activities.

How we use personal data we hold about you

- 9. We may process your personal data for purposes necessary for the performance of our contract with you and to comply with our legal obligations.
- 10. We may process your personal data for the purposes necessary for the performance of our contract with our clients. This may include processing your personal data where you are an employee, subcontractor, supplier or customer of our client.
- 11. We may process your personal data for the purposes of our own legitimate interests provided that those interests do not override any of your own interests, rights and freedoms which require the protection of personal data. This includes processing for marketing and business development.
- 12. We may process your personal data for more than one lawful basis depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data, for example marketing or business development.

Situations in which we will use your personal data

- 13. We may use your personal data in order to:
 - a) carry out our obligations arising from any agreements entered into between you or our clients and us (which will most usually be for the provision of our services);
 - b) carry out our obligations arising from any agreements entered into between our clients and us (which will most usually be for the provision of our services) where you may be a subcontractor, employee, supplier or customer of our client;
 - c) provide you with information related to our services and activities that you request from us or which we feel may interest you, provided you have consented to be contacted for such purposes, for example where you are a client or representative of a client;
 - d) provide you with a newsletter where we rely on legitimate interests for our marketing activities, such information in our newsletter would not surprise you and you would be unlikely to object to it, but such newsletter marketing will not need consent under Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR).
- 14. In some circumstances we may anonymise or pseudonymise the personal data so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use it without further notice to you.
- 15. If you refuse to provide us with certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have entered into with you. Alternatively, we may be unable to comply with our legal or regulatory obligations.
- 16. We may also process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in accordance with this notice, where we are legally required or permitted to do so.

Data retention

17. We will only retain your personal data for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it is collected.
18. When assessing what retention period is appropriate for your personal data, we take into consideration:
 - ✓ the requirements of our business and the services provided;
 - ✓ any statutory or legal obligations;
 - ✓ the purposes for which we originally collected the personal data;
 - ✓ the lawful grounds on which we based our processing;
 - ✓ the types of personal data we have collected;
 - ✓ the amount and categories of your personal data; and
 - ✓ whether the purpose of the processing could reasonably be fulfilled by other means.

Change of purpose

19. Where we need to use your personal data for another reason, other than for the purpose for which we collected it, we will only use your personal data where that reason is compatible with the original purpose.
20. Should it be necessary to use your personal data for a new purpose, we will notify you and communicate the legal basis which allows us to do so before starting any new processing.

Data sharing

21. Why might you share my personal data with third parties?
22. We will share your personal data with third parties where we are required by law, where it is necessary to administer the relationship between us or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so.
23. Which third-party service providers process my personal data?
24. Unless required by law, we will only share personal data with a third party where we have received your consent.
25. If we share data with third-party service providers, with your consent, we shall expect those providers to take commercially reasonable and appropriate security measures to protect your personal data. We shall only permit our third-party service providers to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.
26. What about other third parties?
27. We may also need to share your personal data with a regulator or to otherwise comply with the law.

Transferring personal data outside the EEA

28. We will not transfer the personal data we collect about you outside of the EEA.

Data security

29. We have put in place commercially reasonable and appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

In addition, we shall limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know and where relevant with your consent. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

30. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach.

Rights of access, correction, erasure, and restriction

Your duty to inform us of changes

31. It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Should your personal information change, please notify us of any changes of which we need to be made aware by contacting us, using the contact details below.

Your rights in connection with personal data

32. Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data. This enables you to receive details of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are processing it lawfully.
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this basis. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of your personal data to you or another data controller if the processing is based on consent, carried out by automated means and this is technically feasible.

33. If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please email our Data Protection Point of Contact.

34. You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

35. We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

Right to withdraw consent

36. In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal data for a specific purpose (for example, in relation to direct marketing that you have indicated you would like to receive from us), you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time.

37. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your personal information (personal data) for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

Changes to this notice

38. Any changes we may make to our privacy notice in the future will be updated on our website at: www.dennysullivan.co.uk
39. This privacy notice was last updated on 5th March 2019.

Contact us

40. If you have any questions regarding this notice or if you would like to speak to us about the manner in which we process your personal data, please email our Data Protection Point of Contact, Anthony Denny or write or telephone our Data Protection Point of Contact on Anthony Denny on 020 7713 1600.
41. You also have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues, at any time.
